RULES AND REGULATIONS

TRADING-WAIVER PERIODS

Within Own League—No waivers necessary from last day of season to midnight, June 15. Waivers are necessary from midnight, June 15 (PDT) to final day of season.

Inter-League—Waivers are necessary at all times except during the two inter-league trading periods. (The first inter-league trading period allows for the assignment of player contracts from one major league to another without waivers in the period starting at 12:01 Pacific Time, February 15th, and ending on April 1st (5:00 P.M. - PST). The second inter-league trading period comes five days after the close of the World Series and continues until 5:00 P.M. local city time in the city in which the meetings are being held, the day before the last scheduled day of the Annual Meetings.

National Association—Waivers are required at all times for assignment to a National Association club, except for optional assignments within three years of date player first reported to the major leagues.

USE OF DESIGNATED HITTER

Rule 6.10 provides that "Any League may elect to use the Designated Hitter Rule." (a) In the event of inter-league competition between any clubs of Leagues using the Designated Hitter Rule and clubs of Leagues not using the Designated Hitter Rule, the rule will be used as follows:

1. In exhibition games, the rule will be used or not used as is the practice of the home team.
2. In All Star games, the rule will only be used if both teams and both Leagues so agree.
3. In World Series play the rule will be used every other year. It will be used in all even numbered years.

DESIGNATED HITTER FOR THE PITCHER RULE

(Adopted by the American League for the 1973 season.)

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers in any game without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A Designated Hitter for the pitcher must be selected prior to the game and must be included in the lineup cards presented to the Umpire-in-Chief.

The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing club changes pitchers.

It is not mandatory that a club designate a hitter for the pitcher, but failure to do so prior to the game precludes the use of a Designated Hitter for that game.

Pinch hitters for a Designated Hitter may be used. Any substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter himself becomes a Designated Hitter. A replaced Designated Hitter shall not re-enter the game in any capacity.

The Designated Hitter may be used defensively, continuing to bat in the same position in the batting order, but the pitcher must then bat in the place of the substituted defensive player, unless more than one substitution is made, and the manager then must designate their spots in the batting order.

A runner may be substituted for the Designated Hitter and the runner assumes the role of Designated Hitter.

A Designated Hitter is "locked" into the batting order. No multiple substitutions may be made that will alter the batting rotation of the Designated Hitter.

Once the game pitcher is switched from the mound to a defensive position this move shall terminate the DH role for the remainder of the game.

Once a pinch-hitter bats for any player in the batting order and then enters the game to pitch, this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once the game pitcher bats for the Designated Hitter this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a Designated Hitter assumes a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE

Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES

(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:
  (1) A curfew imposed by law.
  (2) A time limit permissible under league rules.
  (3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club. (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment.).
  (4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on.
  (5) Weather, if the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:
    (i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.
    (ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of a curfew, weather, or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12(a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

(c) By amending NOTE to read as follows:
  NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—4.12(a) (1 through 5)—shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five (5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation outlined in 4.12(a)(5)(i) prevails) is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:
  (1) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same grounds;
  or
  (2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule, or
  (3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the grounds of the opposing club, if possible;
    (i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or
    (ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header, if no single game remains on the schedule.
  (4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

(d) A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution.

  Any player may be replaced by a player who had not been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup. A player who was not with the club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he had been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

PLAYER LIMITS—ROOKIE QUALIFICATION

PLAYER LIMITS: The active player limit from opening day through August 21 is 25 players, and 40 players from September 1 through the end of the season. The minimum number of active players maintained by each club throughout the Championship Season shall be 24.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-player limit (excluding time in the military service).

"SAVE" RULE

(Adopted on recommendation of the BBWAA)
Rule 10.20 SAVES FOR RELIEF PITCHERS

Credit a Pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and

(3) He qualified under one of the following conditions:

  (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning.

  (b) He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tieing run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tieing run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or

  (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE

All night games must be called at 1:00 AM, local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1:00 AM, local time, it can be completed...Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season in each of the two parks of two contesting teams...This is the only curfew in the American League.

GAME WINNING RBI

"GAME WINNING RBI" is the run batted in that gives a club a lead it never relinquishes. (NOTE: There does not have to be a game-winning RBI in every game and all game-winning RBIs must conform to Rule 10.04.)

PLAYERS TO WEAR EAR FLAPS

All National Association players will wear double ear flaps. Major League players are urged to wear the double ear flap protection, but are obliged only to wear the single ear flap (except all players not wearing ear flaps in 1982 are not compelled to do so now.)

1984...THE YEAR OF THE TIGER

The 1984 Tigers were in first place in the American League East from the first day of the season through the last—a feat never before accomplished by a team playing a 162-game schedule. Not since the 1927 New York Yankees had any team led from wire-to-wire.

The Tigers began with a victory to spoil Minnesota's home opener and by the end of April the Tigers' record was 18–2, tying the major league mark for the best start of a season.

On May 24th the Tigers set a major league record with their 17th consecutive road victory and became the only team ever to start a season with 35 wins in 40 games. In July, six Tigers were named to the A.L. All-Star squad and at the end of the month the team record was 69–31 after 100 games. Finally, on September 18th, in front of a home crowd of 48,810, the Tigers clinched the A.L. East, marking the first time in 12 years the Detroit club would participate in post-season play.

They went on to sweep the Western Division champion Kansas City Royals in three games in the American League Championship Series and to beat the San Diego Padres in five games for the World Championship.

While a multitude of individual performances contributed to the phenomenon that were the 1984 World Champion Tigers, featured below are three players representative of the regular season and post-season play that made 1984 the Year of the Tiger.

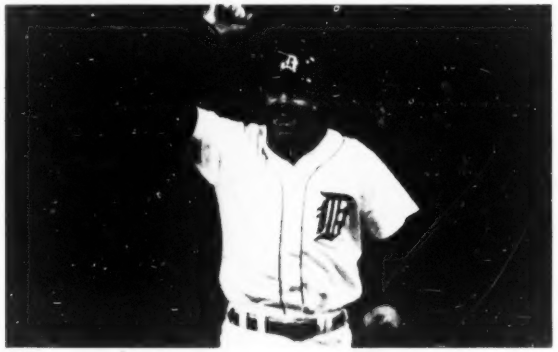
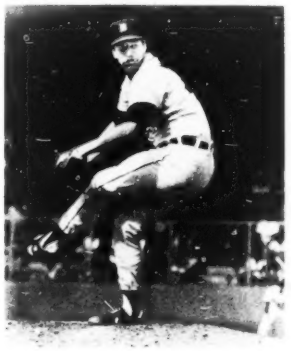
ALAN TRAMMELL...Started the 1984 season by being named the American League's "Player of the Month" for April, when he hit .403 and had an 18-game hitting streak (ended May 1). He was named to the league's All-Star squad, but replaced due to injury...Had a 20-game hitting streak in August and finished the season with 10 game-tying, 8 go-ahead and five game-winning RBIs, a .314 average and another Gold Glove at shortstop to his credit. After batting .364 in the ALCS vs. the Royals, including a Game 1 home run, Alan hit .450 versus the San Diego Padres in the World Series, with two homers in Game 4, and six runs-batted-in the five-games, for which he won World Series Most Valuable Player honors.



KIRK GIBSON...Became the first Tiger player to steal 20 bases and hit 20 home runs in a season, in 1984. Kirk had 7 game-tying, 23 go-ahead and 17-game-winning RBIs last year (and set a Tiger mark for GW RBI in a season). In the Tigers' three-game sweep of the Kansas City Royals in the American League Championship Series, the flamboyant outfielder broke loose and made his most lasting impression of 1984. He hit .417 in the three games, including a double, a home run, a stolen base and two runs-batted-in. He was named the ALCS Most Valuable Player and won his choice of Chevrolet vehicles to commemorate the honor. Kirk went on to hit .333 in the five-game World Series, including two home runs in the final game.



JACK MORRIS...No-hit the Chicago White Sox in Comiskey Park on April 7th, before the first national television audience of the new season. Began 1984 by notching 10 victories in his first 11 decisions; got his 100th career win in June; was named to the 1984 A.L. All-Star Squad; became the only Tiger pitcher in club history to lead the team in victories for 5 straight seasons...In post-season play, Jack pitched 7 innings of Game 1 of the A. L. Championship Series, getting the win over the Royals. It was just a warm-up for his 2 complete game victories over San Diego in the 1984 World Series (Games 1 & 4). Jack Morris is the only starting pitcher allowed to go the distance in a World Series game by Sparky Anderson, who has managed 28 World Series games.

ON OUR COVER...the Detroit Tigers celebrate winning their World Championship with high-fives (inset), while star players from all 14 American League teams who had "high-five-worthy" 1984 seasons are depicted. They are, from left to right—(Top Row): Mike Witt of California, who hurled a perfect game on the last day of the season...Tony Armas of Boston, Major League RBI and home run champion...Kent Hrbek of Minnesota, number two in the A.L. MANAGER'S SKETCH

GENE WILLIAM MAUCH—Born November 18, 1925 in Salina, Kansas; Residence: Rancho Mirage, California . . . Height: five feet, 10 inches; Weight: 175 pounds . . . Named manager October 16, 1984.

"Enthusiasm and excitement." With those fires having been rekindled from within, Gene Mauch returns for a second term as manager of the California Angels. Mauch puts on a uniform again following a two-year absence from the field. During most of that time, he remained with the Angels organization in the capacity of Director of Player Personnel. A noted strategist, Mauch is a firm believer in having a strong defensive ballclub. In 1982, Mauch guided the Angels to their second Western Division title, winning 93 games in the process, most in club history. Originally appointed the Halos' skipper May 28, 1981, the division title was the first of Mauch's career. On the all-time managerial list, Mauch ranks ninth in games won (1,646) and ninth in total games (3,457). He is also beginning his 24th season of managerial service. He is currently tied with Hall of Famer Walter Alston (23 years) for the No. 8 spot in that category. Mauch holds the major league record for the longest managerial stint without a pennant winner (22 years). It should be pointed out, however, that much of Mauch's tenure was spent rebuilding clubs—the Philadelphia Phillies in the early 1960's, the expansion Montreal Expos, and the Minnesota Twins. Despite the omission of any pennants, Mauch's efforts earned him National League Manager of the Year honors on three occasions—1962, 1964 and 1973. The first two awards were gained at Philadelphia, while the latter was accomplished at Montreal. Mauch started his professional career as a shortstop in the Brooklyn Dodgers' organization in Durham, North Carolina in 1943. He played for six major league clubs—the Dodgers, Pirates, Cubs, Braves, Cardinals and Red Sox from 1944 through 1957, posting a .239 career batting average. He accepted his first managerial post with the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Association in 1953 at the age of 28. Mauch resigned as manager of the Twins August 24, 1980 and remained out of baseball until joining the Angels as Director of Player Personnel February 12, 1981. He resigned as skipper of the Angels October 22, 1982, citing personal reasons, and was later rehired as the club's director of Player Personnel September 14, 1983.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ANTHONY La RUSSA, JR.—Born October 4, 1944, Tampa, Florida; Residence: Sarasota, Florida . . . Married (Elaine), two daughters (Bianca, Devon); six feet one inch; Weight 185 pounds . . . Named manager August 2, 1979, succeeding Don Kessinger.

The youngest manager in the American League at the age of 40, Tony La Russa owns the second longest tenure of any skipper in the league. Only Detroit's Sparky Anderson has held his present post longer—by a mere 14 days. The 1985 season is La Russa's sixth at the helm of the Chicago White Sox and in spite of last year's disappointing performance, his major league managerial record—all with the White Sox—is over the .500 mark going into 1985 at 411-395. The Sox' historic 1983 season is the highlight of La Russa's career thus far. The Sox not only set a team record by winning the '83 Western Division flag by 20 games, they also set a standard in the American League, wiping out the old marks for winning margin both before and after the start of division play. The '83 Sox 99-63 record was the second best in the history of the A.L. charter franchise, and La Russa was named "Manager of the Year" by The Sporting News, Associated Press, and the Baseball Writers Association of America, among others, for his effort. La Russa gained his first managerial experience with the Sox AA team at Knoxville in 1978, winning first half honors in the Southern League. A star athlete at Jefferson High School (Tampa, Florida), he signed his first pro contract with the Kansas City Athletics in 1962, and made his major league debut with them in 1963. He also appeared briefly in the majors with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs. He is a licensed attorney in the State of Florida.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

GEORGE LEE (Sparky) ANDERSON—Born February 22, 1934, Bridgewater SD; Residence: Thousand Oaks, CA . . . Married (Carol), three children . . . Height: five feet nine inches; Weight: 170 pounds . . . Became 28th manager of the Tigers replacing Les Moss during the 1979 season.

Making good on his promise, Sparky Anderson guided the Tigers to a championship in the final stage of his "five-year plan." At the press conference to announce his hiring in June, 1979, Anderson told the gathering the Tigers would be a contender within two years and champions by the time his contract expired. He was right on both accounts. They won nine consecutive games to start the 1984 season, were 18-2 at the end of April, tied a major league record of 17 consecutive victories on the road and supposedly peaked at 35-5 in late May. The peak wasn't reached, however, until the Tigers finished with a club-record 104 victories, a 3-game sweep of Kansas City in the LCS and a World Series crown in five games vs. San Diego. For the way Anderson skillfully utilized his entire roster he was named Manager-of-the-Year, to go with his two previous awards as field leader of Cincinnati in 1972 and 1975. He became the first manager ever to win World Series titles in each league. His Cincinnati and Detroit teams won 12 consecutive post-season games between 1975-84. He owns a 1,342 win and 970 loss mark, good for a .580 career winning percentage. No other active manager can match his success ratio, and only six managers with at least 10 years experience rate higher in baseball history. Born in South Dakota but raised in California, Anderson was a minor league infielder for six seasons. He spent only one year in the major leagues—1959 with the Philadelphia Phillies. He played four more years in the minors with Toronto before taking over as manager there in 1964. Anderson moved back to the major leagues as coach, first with San Diego in 1969. The Reds named him manager on Oct. 9, 1969. Anderson led Cincinnati to five NL West Division Titles, four pennants and back-to-back World Series triumphs during his nine year tenure. He came to Detroit on June 12, 1979 and now holds the position of Dean of AL Managers. His current contract runs through the 1986 season.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

RICHARD DALTON HOWSER—Born May 14, 1936, Miami, FL . . . Residence: Tallahassee, FL . . . Married (Nancy), two children . . . Height: five feet, nine inches; Weight: 155 pounds . . . Named Royals manager August 31, 1981.

He has compiled a solid 376-305 record in 3-plus seasons as a major league manager for a .552 winning percentage. His record at the helm of the Royals is 273-246, which is highlighted by last year's division crown and a pair of 2nd place showings the previous 2 years . . . The 1984 Royals were 84-78. After falling 11 games under .500 and 8 games out on July 18, he guided the club to a 33-18 spurt over the next 51 games to clinch the crown. He was selected as A.L. Manager-of-the-Year by ESPN and was 2nd to Sparky Anderson in the BBWAA vote . . . Dick was named Royals' Manager, August 31, 1981. He guided the club to a 20-13 record and sparked the club to the 2nd half championship in the American League West. In 1982 the Royals were 90-72 . . . Howser is a veteran of 26 years in professional baseball, including 8 years as a major league player, 10 years as a coach and 4 full years as a manager. Howser-led teams have never finished below 2nd place. He managed the 1980 New York Yankees to the best record in baseball with a 103-59 (.635) slate and the American League Eastern Division Championship. Dick became only the 4th manager in history to win 100 or more games as a 1st-year manager. Howser was the Yankee's 3rd base coach for ten years (1969-78) and also managed the Yanks' instructional league team for 2 years . . . Dick began his professional career in 1958 following his collegiate playing days at Florida State. He was signed by the Kansas City Athletics and was named the Sporting News American League Rookie-of-the-Year in 1961 as a member of the A's. During his rookie campaign, he was also selected for the A.L. All-Star squad. With the Indians in 1964 he tied the A.L. record for most games played by a shortstop (162) and tied for the league lead with 6 sacrifice hits . . . Howser coached FSU's baseball team in 1979 leading the Seminoles to a 43-16 record and to the NCAA Eastern Regionals in his 1st year as a collegiate coach. He played for the Seminoles from 1954-58 earning All-American honors as a shortstop in 1957-58. He holds the unusual distinction of having been honored as Amateur Athlete-of-the-Year in Florida (1958) and the Professional Athlete-of-the-Year in Florida (1961).

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JACKIE MOORE—Born February 19, 1939 in Jay, Fla. Resides in Arlington, TX. Married (Joann), 4 children. Height: 6 foot; Weight: 180 pounds. Named A's Manager on May 25, 1984 replacing Steve Boros.

After 14 years of coaching in the big leagues, Jackie Moore received his first major league managerial assignment when he was handed the reins of the Oakland A's on May 24, 1984. He took over for Steve Boros when the club was 20-24. He made his debut at home May 25 against the Yankees as the A's took a thrilling, brawl-filled 10-7 decision. Oakland finished 57-61 (.483) under Moore for the 1984 season. Moore had managed just more than 2½ years prior to 1984, all at the minor league level. He piloted the Toronto Maple Leafs in their final days in 1967, Moore's last year as a player. The following year he took over the leadership of Jamestown in the New York-Penn League and stayed there through the 1969 campaign. Six years later, Moore guided Pittsfield through the second half of the 1975 season in the Eastern League. Moore started his coaching career after catching for 11 years in the minors and 21 games for the Detroit Tigers in 1965. He was considered an outstanding defensive catcher throughout his career with an excellent working knowledge of the game. The Milwaukee Brewers picked up on this and hired him as a coach in 1970. He joined the Texas Rangers' staff in 1973 and was in Arlington through the 1976 season. He then moved to Toronto to help teach the young Blue Jay squad. He spent three years with the Jays, coaching both third and first. Following the 1979 season, he returned for his second tour of duty with the Rangers. He spent one year with Texas before heading further west to join the A's in 1981.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

CHARLES KEITH (CHUCK) COTTIER—Born January 8, 1936 in Delta, CO; Resides in Des Moines, IA. . . . Married (Laurie), one daughter . . . Height: five feet, eleven inches; Weight: 180 pounds . . . Became interim manager of the Mariners on September 1, 1984 replacing Del Crandall, named to permanent position on November 7, 1984.

Became the Mariners' 5th skipper in just eight seasons. Under Cottier's guidance, the Mariners responded with the best September ever . . . The appointment marked the first major league managerial job for Cottier. He originally joined the Mariner coaching staff in 1982 and has served as the club's third base coach for the past three seasons. Prior to the '82 season, Chuck spent three years in a similar coaching capacity with the New York Mets . . . In his four years as a minor league manager, Cottier never finished below third place (a combined 287-197 career mark). His managerial career began in 1971 with Pittsburgh's Class A club at Niagara Falls (N.Y. Penn. League). In his first full season at the helm in '72, he captured the league title with a 43-22 record . . . Following the '74 season, he left professional baseball for two years to pursue interests outside of the game. He returned to manage in the California minor league system in 1977. He managed two seasons at the Class A level for the Angels before moving to the Mets' major league coaching staff . . . As a player, the 43-year-old Colorado native spent all or part of nine seasons in the major leagues beginning in 1959 with the Milwaukee Braves. His major league career saw him change uniforms on four occasions (Milwaukee, Detroit, Washington, and California). His most productive years were as a member of the Washington Senators' infield (1961-62-63-64).

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ROBERT JOE (Bobby) COX—Born May 21, 1941, Tulsa, OK; Residence: Marietta, GA . . . Married (Pamela), four children . . . Height: Six feet; Weight: 185 pounds . . . Third manager of the Blue Jays; appointed October 15, 1981.

Bobby starts his fourth season with the Blue Jays, the longest tenure of any skipper in the history of the franchise. In 1984, for the second consecutive season and the second time in franchise history, the Blue Jays finished over .500 with an 89-73 record. That record was good enough for second place, the club's highest standing ever. In 1983, under the guidance of the former infielder, the Blue Jays finished at 89-73, in fourth place, then the highest standing in franchise history. It was just a natural progression of improvement. Bobby's first year was 1982 when he guided the club to a 78-84 finish, tying for sixth place thus escaping seventh place for the first time. An avid supporter of the platoon system, Cox enjoys the highest winning percentage of a Blue Jays manager, 256-230, .527. Prior to signing with the Blue Jays he managed the Atlanta Braves of the National League for four seasons following a successful minor league career in the New York Yankee system. Cox compiled a 266-323 record in his four seasons at Atlanta, finishing the 1980 campaign with a fourth place, 81-80 slate. He received numerous votes for NL Manager of the Year honors as the Braves were widely acclaimed as the most improved team in the NL that season. Only Luman Harris (five years) managed the Braves longer than Cox. Originally signed as an infielder by the Los Angeles Dodgers, Cox started his 10-year playing career in 1960. He was dealt to Atlanta in a minor league trade in 1966 and following the 1967 season, he was traded again, to the New York Yankees. He became the Yankees starting third baseman in 1968, batting .229 but lost his job to his roommate, Bobby Murcer, who opened the 1969 season. Cox hit .215 in 1969 for a two-season .225 lifetime average in the Majors. He retired due to bad knees following the 1970 season, but remained in the Yankees organization as manager of their Fort Lauderdale Class A farm team. He never finished lower than fourth in his six years as a manager in the Yankee system, winning his first pennant and championship with West Haven in the Eastern League (Class AA) in 1972. In the next four seasons, all at Syracuse on the Triple A level, he finished second twice and third twice and won the International League Championship's Governors Cup in 1976. In 1977, he was a first base coach with the Yankees.

QUALIFYING FOR LEAGUE TITLES

To assure uniformity in establishing the batting, pitching and fielding championships of professional leagues, such champions shall meet the following minimum performance standards:

BATTING

The individual batting champion or slugging champion shall be the player with the highest batting average or slugging percentage, provided he is credited with as many or more total appearances at the plate in League Championship games as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season, multiplied by 3.1 in the case of a major league player. EXCEPTION: However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest, if he were charged with the required number of plate appearances or official at bats, then that player shall be awarded the batting championship or slugging championship.

Total appearances at the plate shall include official times at bat, plus bases on balls, times hit by pitcher, sacrifice hits, sacrifice flies and times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction.

PITCHING

The individual pitching champion shall be the pitcher with the lowest earned-run average, provided that he has pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

FIELDING

The individual fielding champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

(1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;

(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;

(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

LEAGUE EXPLAINS FORMAT FOR 1985 SCHEDULE

The A. L. schedule uses a balanced format in which each club plays twelve games against all 13 opponents, for a total of 156 games. This includes six home contests and six away against each opponent.

However, in order to reach the seasonal total of 162 games, it is necessary to add six games to the above 156 total. This is accomplished by having each club play six additional games within its division—three home and three away, one with each club in its division.

KEY TO MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE

A year of Major League service is equivalent to 172 days of the playing season. On the preceding roster pages, the column at the right indicates the length of the player's service. A designation reading "6.012" means six years and twelve days of M.L. service.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

STATISTICAL ABBREVIATIONS

With so many added statistics available in this computer age, some of the column abbreviations may be puzzling. They mean, as follows:

FIGURING BASEBALL STATISTICS

BATTING AVERAGE—Divide the number of base hits by the total number of times at bat.

PITCHERS EARNED RUN AVERAGE—Multiply the total number of earned runs by nine, and divide the results by the total number of innings pitched.

WON-LOST PERCENTAGE—Divide the number of games won by the total number of games played.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE—Divide the total number of bases of all base hits by the total number of times at bat.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE—Divide the total number of Hits plus Bases on Balls plus Hit by Pitcher BY At Bats plus Bases on Balls plus Hit by Pitcher plus Sacrifice Flies.

The first manager in Major League history to win World Championships in both leagues—Sparky Anderson, skipper of the 1984 World Champion Detroit Tigers—won the Baseball Writers Association of America's second annual "Manager of the Year" award in the American League.

Anderson received 13 of the possible 28 first-place votes (two votes per A.L. city), with Kansas City's Dick Howser garnering 11 and Minnesota's Billy Gardner receiving the remaining four. Bobby Cox of Toronto and John McNamara—then with California, now skipper of the Boston Red Sox—were the only other A.L. managers named on ballots.

BASEBALL WRITERS "SAVE" TWO BIG ONES FOR TIGERS' WILLIE HERNANDEZ

Detroit relief specialist Willie Hernandez became only the second fireman in A.L. history to win both the Cy Young and Most Valuable Player Awards in the same year (Rollie Fingers, Milwaukee, 1981), as voted by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

The 28-year-old left-hander came out of the Tiger bullpen to notch 32 "saves" in 33 "save" situations...and was 30-for-30 on September 18th, the day the Tigers clinched the A.L. East.

Hernandez was presented with both trophies at the New York Baseball Writers Dinner in January (see photo above). He had a 9-3 record with a 1.92 earned run average at the end of the season and chalked up three additional "saves" in post-season play.

Dan Quisenberry of Kansas City, was runner-up in the Cy Young voting with 71 total points to Hernandez's 88. Cleveland's Bert Blyleven and Baltimore's Mike Boddicker also received first-place votes; while Dan Petry of the Tigers, Frank Viola of Minnesota, Jack Morris of Detroit, and Toronto's Dave Stieb were named on ballots. Five points are awarded for a first-place vote, three for a second, and one for a third-place vote. (See table below).

Hernandez led the MVP voting (306 points) over Minnesota Twins first baseman Kent Hrbek (247 points) and Quisenberry, who finished third. Willie received 16 first-place votes to Hrbek's five, Quiz's five and Eddie Murray of the Orioles' two. 24 other American League stars were named on MVP ballots.

14 points are awarded for a first-place MVP vote; nine for second; eight for third, etc. (MVP balloting table appears to the right.)

HONORS FOR A.L. VEEPS

Two of the American League's three Vice Presidents were honored in 1984. John E. Fetzer, Chairman of the Board of the Detroit Tigers received the Commissioner's Trophy, for outstanding service to Baseball, at the Summer Meetings in Philadelphia. He was the first team owner to be awarded a Commissioner's Trophy and received it from out-going Commissioner Bowie K. Kuhn.

Calvin R. Griffith, whose family had been connected with baseball for nearly a century, was honored for long and meritorious service to the game by both the N.Y. Baseball Writers and by American League team owners. On announcing the sale of his Twins to Minnesota banker Carl Pohlad, A.L. clubs presented Griffith with a resolution thanking him for "his valued, wise and enduring service" to the league. Griffith continues to serve as Chairman of the Board of the Minnesota Twins.

KINGMAN LEADS DH'S IN HOMERS, RBI; WINS OUTSTANDING DH AWARD FOR 1984

The Outstanding Designated Hitter Award (ODH) for 1984—as voted on by American League officials, beat writers and team broadcasters—was won by Dave Kingman of the Oakland Athletics, by being named first on 51 of 84 ballots cast. He led all DH's in home runs with 35 and RBI's with 112.

The award is given annually by The Union Leader of Manchester, New Hampshire, in cooperation with the American League and Kingman has won in the 12th year since its inception, making him the eighth DH to be so honored.

The Red Sox led the A.L. in designated hitting (.306) and they were led by DH Mike Easler, who was second in the ODH balloting, followed by Cleveland's Andre Thornton.

The huge trophy will be presented to Kingman when the Oakland club visits Fenway Park in 1985.

Previous Outstanding Designated Hitter Award winners were:

1983 Greg Luzinski, Chicago White Sox
1982 Hal McRae, Kansas City Royals
1981 Greg Luzinski, Chicago White Sox
1980 Hal McRae, Kansas City Royals

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES MVP'S

The American League has recognized the Most Valuable Players of the League Championship Series since 1980. Four of the five winners have come from the pennant-winning club. Fred Lynn won the award in 1982 despite the Milwaukee Brewers victory over California.

1981	Graig Nettles, N.Y.	N.Y.-3, Oak.-0

K.C.'S QUIZ IS A.L.'S ROLAIDS RELIEF MAN OF THE YEAR

For a third consecutive season, Dan Quisenberry of the Western Division champion Kansas City Royals was named the American League's Rolaids Relief Pitcher of the Year. 1984 marked his fourth such award in the last five seasons and he won it with 44 "saves", a 6-3 record and a 2.64 ERA last season.

Quisenberry set the Major League record for "saves" in a season with 45 in 1983 (since equalled by National Leaguer Bruce Sutter) and in 1984 became the first fireman to notch four 30-or-more "saves" seasons in a row. The right-handed submarine pitcher has been credited with 175 "saves" during the 1980-1984 seasons—more than any other big league pitcher during that span.

MARINERS' ALVIN DAVIS EDGES TEAMMATE IN A.L. ROOKIE OF THE YEAR BBWAA VOTING

Davis, the 24-year-old first baseman who represented the Mariners on the 1984 A.L. All-Star squad, hit .284 with 116 runs-batted-in in 152 games. He won the coveted award with 25 first-place and three second-place votes, edging Langston (three first, 21 second and four third-place votes), despite the left-hander's 17-10, 3.40 ERA record.

Teammates Kirby Puckett and Tim Teufel of Minnesota; Mike Young of Baltimore; Roger Clemens and Al Nipper of Boston; Mark Gubicza of Kansas City; and Ron Romanick of California were the other outstanding A.L. rookies of 1984 named on BBWAA ballots.

FIRST AND LAST

An American League rookie has the distinction of being the last name, alphabetically, among Major League players at press time. He is right-handed pitcher Mitch ZWOLENSKY of the Texas Rangers. Another A.L. right-hander places first alphabetically...Veteran pitcher Don AASE of the Baltimore Orioles.

REGGIE JACKSON'S 503 HOMERS TOPS AMONG ACTIVE PLAYERS

With his 25 home runs in 1984, Reggie Jackson's career total of 503 round-trippers easily leads all active major leaguers. His total entering the 1985 season places him 13th on the all-time list (ahead of Lou Gehrig whom he passed in '84) and only eight homers behind the Giants' legendary Mel Ott (511). Ten more homers would put Jackson in tenth place, ahead of Eddie Mathews and Ernie Banks.

DON BAYLOR NAMED WINNER OF PRESTIGIOUS CLEMENTE AWARD

Don Baylor, the New York Yankee designated hitter-outfielder, won the prestigious Roberto Clemente Award in February, the 15th recipient of the honor presented annually by Major League Baseball. Baylor was selected for the honor by a 25-member panel of media representatives and baseball executives from a list of 26 nominees (one representing each major league club) as the player who best exemplifies the game both on and off the field.

The 35-year-old Yankee won the award primarily for his long and devoted fight against Cystic Fibrosis, for whom he serves as National Sports Chairman. Baylor's selection gave the Yankees back-to-back wins of the Clemente Award (Ron Guidry having won it a year earlier). Baylor was playing winter baseball in Puerto Rico when the Pittsburgh star was killed in an airplane crash while on a rescue mission.

"...Baseball has its MVP and Cy Young Awards," Baylor said on learning of the honor, "but I consider this to be one of the finest awards one can receive." He continued: "...When I first started, not too many people knew very much about Cystic Fibrosis. I have helped them gain an awareness about C-F and what it does to children. Many major leaguers have gotten involved. I'm especially proud of the fact that all 26 teams have '65 Roses Clubs, which gives baseball a special role in fighting the illness. The sharing process has been tremendous," Baylor said.

The Clemente Award recipient is named on the basis of sportsmanship, character, community involvement, humanitarianism, playing ability and the individual's contributions to his team and to baseball. In addition to serving as C-F National Sports Chairman and helping in the creation of the '65 Roses' Sports Clubs which realized a $1.5 million donation in 1984 alone, Baylor has been active in the Ronald McDonald House in New York, March of Dimes and other charity functions.

The AMERICAN LEAGUE
A Brief History 1901 – 1985

The American League of Professional Baseball Clubs was founded January 29, 1900 and became an operating major league commencing in 1901. In all of that time, the league has had only six presidents with Dr. Robert W. Brown (Bobby Brown) taking over on January 1, 1984. In the 84 intervening years, the A.L. has won 47 World Series, the National League has taken 34 (the series started in 1903, was not played in '04, but resumed in 1905).

Before the turn of the century, the old American Association, Union Association and Players' League had expired and the sole major league—the National League—expanded to 12 teams in the 1890s. Byron Bancroft (Ban) Johnson, sports editor of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, was confident that there was a place for a second major baseball league, for under his guidance, the Western League, a minor loop, had flourished. In late 1899 the National League gave Johnson his opportunity by reducing the size of its league to eight clubs. The 35-year-old Johnson moved the St. Paul, Minn., and Grand Rapids, Mich., franchises to Chicago and Cleveland, respectively, and changed the circuit's name to the American League.

The other teams in the loop were Buffalo, Indianapolis, Kansas City, Milwaukee and Minneapolis. The next (1901) season, Johnson acted to bring his league to major status instead of remaining a sectional minor league by shifting four franchises to major eastern cities. Washington, Baltimore, Boston and Philadelphia replaced Indianapolis, Kansas City, Buffalo and Minneapolis. At the same time his recruiting campaign brought to the new major league such established big time stars as Cy Young, Napoleon Lajoie, Willie Keeler, Sam Crawford and Jimmy Collins.

In 1902 St. Louis replaced Milwaukee and in 1903 New York joined the American League in place of Baltimore, leaving the league with an eight team lineup of Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, New York, Philadelphia, St. Louis and Washington. That array of clubs remained stable for 51 consecutive years. The short-lived Baltimore and Milwaukee clubs bore the same team nicknames as their modern counterparts—the Orioles and Brewers.

Peace between the two leagues came in January, 1903, with the American League gaining parity. Any doubts about the strength of the new league were eliminated when Boston beat Pittsburgh in the 1903 World Series, the first ever. Ban Johnson, of course, was president of the American League from the start, and served until he resigned because of failing health on October 18, 1927. He was succeeded by Ernest S. Barnard, who died in office in 1931. Will Harridge was then elected and served until 1959. Joe Cronin, a Hall of Fame player and later a successful manager and general manager, assumed office and presided over the league until 1974, when Lee MacPhail was elected the fifth president of the league. Cronin was elected Chairman of the Board. MacPhail served for a decade and was succeeded last year by Dr. Brown.

In 1954, the St. Louis Browns moved to Baltimore, and the next year Philadelphia moved to Kansas City. The A.L. expanded in 1961, putting new teams in Los Angeles (later Anaheim) and Washington. The old Washington Senators moved to Minnesota and became the Twins, Charles Finley moved the Kansas City franchise to Oakland in 1968, and in 1969 the league expanded again, this time into Kansas City and Seattle. The Seattle franchise moved the next year to Milwaukee. The 1969 expansion resulted in a major change to divisional play, with a best-of-five league championship playoff determining the pennant winner. The expansion Washington team moved to Texas in 1972.

In 1972 (for the 1973 season), the American League adopted the "Designated Hitter" rule which allows an assigned hitter for the pitcher, an innovation that has materially increased the league's offense right through the 1984 season. (See box on page 101.) It was the first major rules change in baseball since the nineteenth century.

The American League took a giant step in 1976 by expanding to 14 teams—adding Seattle and Toronto—effective with the 1977 baseball season. The Mariners opened in the new Kingdome, the first enclosed dome stadium in the A.L. Since then, the Twins have moved into the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome (1982) in downtown Minneapolis. The Toronto Blue Jays developed a strong fan following from the outset, and last season, as a contender, attracted over two million fans.

Over the years, there have been a variety of dominant teams with the New York Yankees undoubtedly being the most prominent, winning 33 league championships and 22 World Series. Boston won the first Series in 1903, Detroit the most recent in 1984. The Yankees became dominant in the 20s, Philadelphia A's (1929-31), Detroit and New York in the thirties, the Yankees again in the 50s and 60s. Baltimore was a frequent winner in the sixties and early 70s, followed by Oakland dominance in the mid-70s.

The league has produced a multitude of outstanding players, super stars and Hall of Famers...the most dominant personalities including Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Ted Williams, Jimmy Foxx, Joe DiMaggio, Bob Feller among many others.

BOSTON RED SOX PLAY HOUSTON ASTROS IN ANNUAL "HALL OF FAME" GAME JULY 29

The Boston Red Sox host the Houston Astros in the 1985 Hall of Fame game at Cooperstown, New York on Monday afternoon, July 29th. It will mark Boston's first Hall of Fame appearance in a decade. The Red Sox defeated San Francisco, 11-5, in the 1975 contest. Boston also won in 1963, 1955 and 1950; losing only in the first Cooperstown game back in 1940 despite two Ted Williams home runs.

Overall, the American League has won 24 games in Cooperstown lost 14 and tied three.

Induction ceremonies this summer will be on Sunday, July 28th when Hoyt Wilhelm and Lou Brock will be honored along with any representatives selected by the Hall of Fame Committee on Veterans (which was scheduled to vote in early March).

ROD CAREW'S .330 LIFETIME AVERAGE STILL TOPS MAJOR LEAGUE HITTERS

After 18 full seasons in the major leagues, Rod Carew of the California Angels still tops all major league hitters in lifetime average with a .330 average while playing for Minnesota and now the California Angels.

Though he broke a 15-year streak of hitting over .300 each year, Carew's .295 of 1984 lowered his lifetime mark by only one point. Carew needs only 71 hits to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1985. His all-time high mark came in 1977 with the Twins when he flirted with .400 all year, settling for a .388 average, and 239 base hits. He has reached the 200-hit total in four major league seasons.

MURRAY, WINFIELD POST STRONG OFFENSIVE AND DEFENSIVE MARKS

Baltimore's Eddie Murray and Dave Winfield of the Yankees have posted strong offensive and defensive marks consistently in recent seasons without winning special honors. The Oriole first baseman hit over .300 for the third year in a row and fourth in the last five by batting .306 in 1984. In those five seasons, Murray has hit 148 home runs and driven in 525 runs (an average of 105 per season including the abbreviated '81 campaign).

Winfield was runnerup to teammate Don Mattingly for the A. L. batting title in 1984, leading the league a good portion of the season. He hit a career high .340 in 1984, three points behind Mattingly. Away from Yankee Stadium he batted .349, again second to Mattingly's .364, tops among road batters. Winfield has been on the All-star team for eight consecutive seasons, four in each league, batting .375 in the eight mid-season classics.

Both Winfield and Murray are defensive stars in the outfield and at first base respectively. Among the league leaders in 14 offensive categories in 1984, Murray's name is listed nine times and Winfield's eight.

HIT BATTER FIGURES

With major league baseball's continuing effort to curb on-field fights and confrontations, a study of hit batters reveals a rather constant figure, with a slight decline in recent years. Back in 1971, there were 426 hit batters in the 12-team American League...an average of 35.5 per team. In 1976, it was 374 for an average of 31.2. After expansion to 14 teams in 1977, the figure was 461 (32.9).

From 1978 through 1984 with a "warning rule" in place, the league averaged 413 HBs (29.5 per club), excluding the abbreviated 1981 campaign. The trend has indicated a slight decline in hit batters.

ORIOLES TRIUMPH ON POST-SEASON GOOD WILL TOUR OF JAPAN

The Baltimore Orioles' three week post-season tour of Japan was a triumph for the 1983 World Champions who won eight, lost five and tied one in their 14-game swing through Japan. The trip took the O's from Tokyo to Kumamoto. Baltimore won four of five contests from the 1984 Japanese champion Hiroshima Carp.

Crowds on the tour averaged 28,000 per game and the Oriole players enjoyed their experience as American ambassadors of good will in the enthusiastic baseball world of Japan. Larry McCoy, veteran American League umpire, accompanied the O's on the entire trip, working all of the games with Japanese umpires.

FATHERS AND SONS

In addition to umpire Bill Kunkel and son Jeff (who are featured on page 97) three other father-son Major League combinations are on the scene this spring. They are: Boston Red Sox Chief Operating Officer Haywood Sullivan and son Marc a rookie catcher for the Red Sox...New York Yankee Manager Yogi Berra and son Dale, new Yankee infielder...and Baltimore Orioles coach Cal Ripken, Sr. and son Cal, Jr., who plays shortstop for the O's.

ANNUAL MEETINGS IN SAN DIEGO, SUMMER SESSION IN ANAHEIM AND ALL-STAR GAME SET IN MINNESOTA

The Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minneapolis will be the scene of the 1985 All-Star Game, the 56th in the series. It will mark the second mid-summer classic to be held in Minnesota and the Twins will be the hosts this summer for the first time since 1965, just 20 years ago, when the NL edged the AL, 6–5. This year's game will be played on Tuesday evening, July 16th. Headquarters for the All-Star game will be the Amfac Hotel in Minneapolis.

The mid-summer annual meetings of the major leagues will be held at the Anaheim Marriott Hotel on August 14 and 15. The winter annual meetings of both the major and minor leagues will be held at the Town and Country Hotel in San Diego from December 9th to December 13th, 1985.

AMERICAN LEAGUE TOPS 23 MILLION ATTENDANCE THIRD CONSECUTIVE YEAR

For the third year in a row, American League paid attendance exceeded 23 million fans, missing the all-time sports league record set by the A. L. in 1983 by 29,896. The 1984 figure was 23,991,053.

Five teams set club records: Baltimore, the Chicago White Sox, Detroit, Minnesota and Toronto. Five clubs also exceeded two million, including the Orioles, California Angels, White Sox, Tigers and Blue Jays. Detroit was the league leader with 2,704,794.
